

IBM Sametime 9 Capabilities for Web Chat

Login, Presence and Availability Status

Connect to a community server via HTTP or via HTTPS

Log in and out of individual communities

Select availability status upon login

Contact and Contact List Management

Add new contact or group

Display availability status on contact list

Display business card for selected contact on click

Display mobile device icons, offline contacts, online contacts only on contact list

Display offline contacts on contact list

Edit a contact's nickname

Expand and collapse all groups on the contact list

Notify when chat partners close the chat session

Remove or rename group from contact list

Save expansion groups on exit

Show contact short names on the contact list

Show contacts from the selected server(s) on the contact list

Sort contacts alphabetically on the contact list

Chat

Add current chat partner to the contact list

Allow displaying emoticons on chat transcripts

Display chat partner's business card on the chat window

Escalate to a meeting from the current chat session

Invite others to the current chat session

Invite selected contact to a new chat session

Invite selected contacts to a new group chat session

Open chat history for the current session

Post URLs and rich text to the chat session (B,I, U, colors, background)

Send announcements to selected contacts

Send a folder to a single user over the current chat session

Capture a region of your screen and send it through chat

Print screen capture

Recapture and send directly from the screen capture window

Other

Allow or prevent list members to see me when I'm online (privacy)

Change availability status from the mirror (business card)

Display photograph, profile information, presence, availability status, and custom information on business card

Show and hide panels (navigation ribbon)